

There was just one person who took and passed the Basic Assessment this summer.

Several others did the revision but due to work commitments have deferred their test to next year.

Our microscopes were very popular at the Royal Cornwall show as were the activities that were provided.

Bajka Pratt